For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

WONDERS OF THE MICROSCOPE.

Upon examining the edge of a very keen razor by the microscope, it appears as broad as the back part of a pretty thick knife; rough, uneven, full of knotches and furrows, and so far from any thing like sharpness, that an instrument so blunt as this seemed to be would not serve even to cleave wood.

An exceeding small needle being also examined, the point thereof appeared above a quarter of an inch in breadth;—not round or flat, but irregular and unequal; and the surface, though extremely smooth and bright to the naked eye, seemed full of ruggedness, holes and scratches. In short, it resembled an iron bar out of a smith's forge.

But the sting of a bee, viewed through the same instrument, showed every where a polish amazingly beautiful, without the least flaw, blemish or inequality; and ended in a point too fine to be discerned.

A small piece of exceeding fine lawn appeared, from the large distances or holes between its threads, somewhat like a buddle or lattice; and the threads themselves seemed somewhat coarser than yarn wherewith ropes are made for anchors.

Some Brussels lace, worth five pounds a yard, looked as if it were made of a thick, rough, uneven hair line, intwisted, fastened or clotted together in a very inartful manner.

But a silk worm's webb being examined, appeared perfectly smooth and shining, every where equal, and as much finer than any thread the finest spinster in the world could made, as the smallest twine is finer than the thickest cable. A pod of this silk being wound off, was found to contain nine hundred and thirty yards; but it is proper to take notice, that as two threads are glued together by the worm through its whole length, it makes really double the above number, or one thousand eight hundred and sixty yards; which, being weighed with the utmost exactness, were found no heavier than two grains and a half. What an exquisite fineness was here! and yet this is nothing when compared to the web of a small spider, or even with the silk that issued from the mouth of this very worm when but newly hatched from the egg.

Let us examine things with a good microscope, and we shall be immediately convinced that the utmost power of art is only a concealment of deformity, an imposition upon our want of sight; and that our admiration of it arises from our ignorance of what it really is.

This valuable discoverer of truth will prove the most boasted performances of art to be ill-shaped, rugged and uneven, as if they were hewn with an axe, or struck out with a mallet and chissel, it will show bungling, inequality, and imperfection in every part, and that the whole is disproportionate and monstrous. Our finest miniature paintings appeared before this instrument as mere daubings, plastered on with a trowel, and entirely void of beauty, either in the drawing or the coloring. Our most shining varnishes, our smoothest polishings, will be found to be mere roughness, full of gaps and flaws. Baker on the Microscope.

The three most Celebrated Novelists.

Fielding, Richardson, and Le Sage, seemed to have attained the greatest eminence to that seductive species of writing, unknown to antiquity, which we denominate novels. Crebillon, Marrivaux, and Smollet, only occupy the second place. Voltaire and Rosseau, however beautiful may be their compositions in this line, are rather satirical or philosophical moralists than novelists. "Don Quixote" is a weak sui generis, and not amenable to ordinary rules. "Gil Blas" seems to stand alone, and will probably be read with avidity in every age and every country. Though the scene lies in Spain and the characters are Spaniards, the manners are universal, and true to nature equally in Madrid, in Paris or in London. Richardson and Fielding are more national, and cannot be read with the same delight on the banks of the Seine, or of the Tiber, as on those of the Thames—tho' the former writer transports us to Bologna, in his "Sir Charles Grandison," Fielding never attempts to carry us out of England, and his actors are all aborigines. Foreigners can never taste his works, nor will he ever attain to the fame of Richardson beyond the limits of his own country. Clementia and Clarissa will penetrate where Sophia Western and Parson Adams never can be known or appreciated. "Joseph Andrews" and "Amelia" may be considered in point of composition to Fielding, what "Pamela" is to Richardson. [London paper.

Fontenelle being asked by a Lord one day at Versailles, 'what difference there was between a clock and a woman,' replied, 'a clock seems to point out the hours, and a woman to make us forget them.'

ALEXANDRIA:
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Saturday, January 31, 1818.

Every man of feeling and common honesty will rejoice to hear that a bill was yesterday reported, read twice and committed, for the relief, (so it is called) but I say for doing justice to major general Arthur St. Clair. I hear that the sum adjudged to him by the committee is 5,500 dollars. If that sum were trebled to him it could neither recall nor atone for the sufferings and domestic incommodations which the detention from him of his just rights for so many years brought upon him and his family, nor expunge from the character of our past councils one shade of the black stain their treatment of this veteran has dyed into them, in the very grain. If it be only justice to pay him his money now, it was injustice to refuse it to him for so many years. I hope that this congress will continue in the honorable course in which it has set out of wiping out old shames.

A message from the president brought before the house a correspondence which took place between the secretary of state and Don Luis De Onis on the subject of Mr. Meade; a full consideration of which will convince every man who knows the systematic, artful duplicity of the Spanish cabinet, that there is little to be expected of either justice or due respect to our country from that quarter. I am delighted at perceiving clearly, nevertheless, that our executive, though temperate, seems to be peremptory upon the occasion, and little disposed to be bamboozled much longer by his LONG EARED MAJESTY. That AX and his creatures will gratify their pious malignity some months longer by the imprisonment of Mr. Meade is evident—Don Onis' letter does in fact, whatever seeming it may assume, make provision for that; and I cannot help thinking that it is going beyond the privilege of insincerity allowed even to Spanish diplomacy, to talk of just intentions and high consideration for the United States on the part of Ferdinand. Indeed I do not see how we could well put up with such an insult upon the understanding of our government, if Don Luis had not balanced it by an equal sneer at his own. For, surely, a more bitter gibe could not be invented by the demon of satire than dressing up the Spanish magistracy in the attribute of "immaculate purity." Never did a dovecot more tremble at the shadow of a hovering kite—never a Parisian shudder at the name of Robespiere more than a Spanish family at the domiciliary visit, with the terrible word justicia reared at the entry door from the hoarse throat of an alguazil, an escribano, a corregidor or an alcalde.

A long discussion arose upon an unfavorable report of the committee on the petition of the pew-holders in the Monumental Church of Richmond, who prayed to have the duties remitted on an organ imported for that church. Mr. Tyler, in support of a motion to reverse that report, displayed eloquence at once forcible and affecting, and possessing that without which oratory may be argumentative but cannot be truly eloquent—I mean feeling. He dwelt with considerable effect upon the dreadful calamity which gave rise to the building of that church, and pointed out cases of much less impressive claim, in which the same remission had been granted—but in vain. Though Mr. Hopkinson, Mr. Mercer and Mr. Holmes lent their logic to the motion, the house took their stand upon the stiff clay of frugality, and Mr. Tyler's motion was negatived. Mr. Smith of Md. opened a sharp pipe on domestic manufactures, which made shocking discord with Mr. Tyler's music—while Mr. Lowndes encountered the arguers with argument. The debate was more interesting than some we have heard on more important subjects—which may serve to show what orators may do even with so trivial a subject as an organ—or as the Scotch Presbyterians used in derision to call it—A WHASTLE KIST.

Extract of a letter from Havana, 13th December, received by the editors of the Boston Palladium.

The Swedish ship Galathea, captain Willis, from Hamburg, with a cargo of linens, belonging to Mr. Francis Deerman, a well known merchant there, was robbed by the Full Blooded Yankee, revolutionary privateer, captain Jewett, of a great part of her cargo; and after doing this captain J. gave captain Willis a passport, a copy of which is enclosed.—The privateers have broken open several letters, by various vessels coming from Europe, and taken out whatever they stood in need of.

Copy of a passport received by captain Willis.

To the captains of the hermaphrodite brig Intrepede, and of the schooner Independencia, belonging to the Chilian squadron, under my command.

Gentlemen,—You will please respect and protect the bearer of this letter, captain B Willis, of the Swedish ship Galathea, whose papers and remaining property I have strictly examined, and are fully, to my satisfaction, neutral.

At sea, on board brig Full Blooded Yankee, 14th Nov. 1817, and of our Independence, 9th.

(Signed) J. JEWETT.

Richmond, Jan. 29.

Yesterday the following resolution was adopted by the Senate:

Resolved, That the several committees to whom revised bills have been referred ought to be discharged from considering them; and that the further consideration of the said bills ought to be postponed until the first Monday in December next.

The House of Delegates were principally engaged on private or local bills.—Among others, which were reported, was one by Mr. Blackburn, amending the Usury Act. It was read the first and second times, referred to the committee of the whole, and ordered to be printed. Among other provisions, it is declared that if by any way or means of a corrupt bargain, sale, purchase, loan, exchange or contract, by parol or in writing, by shift, covin, device or deceit, or in any other manner whatever, with a view to evade the penalties of this act, any person shall ask, demand, reserve, accept, &c. above the rate of six dollars for one hundred, for one year, for the loan, sale, purchase, exchange or shifting of money, bank notes, tobacco, goods or chattels, &c. &c such person so offending shall forfeit double the value of the money, bank notes, &c. half to the use of the literary fund, the other half to the state's attorney who shall prosecute such offender to conviction and judgment. The bill directs the judges and magistrates to give this act specially in charge to the grand juries.—The attorney general and every state's attorney is to cause to be summoned before any grand jury "all persons who they know or believe can give information to such grand jury relative to the violation of this act by any person whatever," &c. &c.

GALLANT EXPLOIT.

The following is a more particular account of the recapture of a vessel from the Algerines than has yet been published:—

From a German paper.

It will be recollected that Captain Schumann, of Petersburg, who commanded the Russian brig Industria, was taken by an Algerine Pirate, and that he afterwards effected his liberation.

The particulars of this event are interesting, and deserving of attention—we imagine, therefore, that we shall merit the thanks of our readers, by communicating to them, word for word, the judicial declarations of the Captain, made before M. Von Buxel, the Russian Consul General in Portugal:

On the 3d July, when about two leagues from Cape Finisterre, I remarked towards 11 o'clock in the forenoon, in the Southwest a brig of war, under English colors, which bore down on me with full sail. When within a short distance of the Industria, I was ordered to tell from whence I came. I answered from Riga, and that I sailed under the Russian flag. I was summoned, under threats to come on board, which I did without opposition, taking with me the papers relative to the ship and cargo. When I got on deck, I found myself on board an Algerine privateer of 22 guns.

I shewed my papers to the commander, who immediately looked over them, and as he found no Turkish pass, or firman, he asked me if I had none, when I answered in the negative, and observed at the same time that the use of them was not known to the Russian ships in the Belt; he declared my ship a good prize, me and my crew prisoners of war. After this declaration he sent me back in my own boat to the Industria, accompanied by eleven well armed Turks, to whom he gave orders to take five men from it, and to bring them to the privateer but to retain me with the 5 other persons of the crew on board the prize.

After this painful separation, the eleven Turks who had obtained possession of the Industria, set sail about six o'clock in the evening towards the west. They examined every part of the ship, to plunder whatever they chose, and to cram themselves with the best provisions.—They said the privateer had two days before taken two other Russian ships a brig and a galliot, from the Belt, destined for Spain, and sent them to Algiers.

The same evening they made use of a great deal of abusive language towards us: they burst the hatches with axes, that they might examine the cargo, and left them then half open. I was guarded in the cabin by two men, who remained with drawn sabres at the door, and they were relieved every hour.

By order of the commander of the privateer, the person placed at the head of the prize, sailed for Algiers, and ordered the five Russian sailors to work, abusing them and threatening to sabre them in case of disobedience. Relying upon the courage of my five sailors, with whom I had before-hand concerted measures for liberating the ship and cargo, in case an opportunity presented itself for so doing, I carried this plan into execution at the risk of my life, on the 5th of July, in view of the Burlingmas, in the following manner:

About 11 o'clock in the forenoon, while I was in the cabin with the commander of the prize, where he was employed in pointing a chart which was lying before him on the table, he demanded a glass of brandy from me, which I ordered a Russian serving as cabin boy to bring to him—and while I called to him to do this I shewed him at the same time an axe standing in a corner, and told him he might split the Turks skull from behind his back, when he was busy along with me looking over the Chart. As I turned the examination to the entrance of the harbor of Algiers, the situation of which compelled the Turk to turn his back more than before to the cabin boy, the latter gave him a blow which stretched him dead at our feet, without the least sound coming from him.

We immediately seized his pistols and his sabre, with which we first killed the two guards at the upper door of the cabin, with whose arms we now, supported by the four sailors who were on deck, attacked the other Turks. After the struggle of an hour, they all lost their lives, with the exception of one man, who roaring out "Christians" sprung into the sea and was drowned. As we tumbled the others who lay stretched on the deck, into the sea, one of them, still alive, held fast to a rope, but a sailor hacked off his hand, and he disappeared in the waves.

The vessel was all over covered with blood, and I esteemed myself fortunate, that on an occasion in which my 5 sailors were exposed to the danger from which we were so providentially saved, the only blood which flowed was my own. I was slightly wounded on the head, the right hand and left hip. Of the property of the Turks we retained nothing but their arms, as the dread of a severe quarantine induced me to throw their bodies, with their clothes, into the sea.

[The investigation took place on the 17th July, and the declaration of the Captain was confirmed by oath by the five sailors.]

From the American Daily Advertiser.

BEAUTIFUL COMPARISON.

We have reason to believe that the objects contained in the Natural World, correspond to, or are representative of, the objects contained in the Spiritual World, agreeably to the declaration of St. Paul: "The invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made." The Sun we will suppose to correspond with the Deity, because as the light and the heat which proceed from the former, vivify and fructify all the objects of animated nature, so do the light of Divine Truth, and heat of Divine Love which proceed from the Lord, vivify and fructify all the spiritual principles in man.—Day corresponds to a state of illumination.—Night corresponds to a state of spiritual darkness.—Now, as the mutations which the inhabitants of the earth experience from light to darkness, are not to be ascribed to any change in the Sun, who is immoveably fixed, but to a change in our own positions, arising from the Earth moving on its axis, so is the mutation of our souls from a state of illumination to a state of darkness, from a state of good to a state of evil, from a state of acceptance to a state of rejection, not to be attributed to any change on the part of God towards us, but to a change in our own states, arising from the abuse of that power, with which we are all invested, either of turning ourselves to the Lord, or of averting ourselves from Him.

To the Flour and Rice Millers OF THE UNITED STATES.

GENTLEMEN,—It appears that many have refused to pay for license to use my improvements in the art of manufacturing flour, and in lessening the labor in rice mills, waiting the decision of the United States' courts; while many others have paid freely the sums I demanded for my license; there can exist no reason why some should pay and others be exempt. There has already been a sufficient number of decisions establishing the law, that each infringer is liable to pay treble my actual damages, which cannot be rated at less than the value of the use of my property during the infringement. I have expended the greatest part of a long, arduous, and indefatigable life in study and exertions to invent and introduce into useful operation several important and highly useful improvements, from which great benefits are derived to the users, and I could have put in operation many more equally useful, but was prevented by the unjustifiable opposition, wasting the profits of those in operation, which I had intended to apply to put others in operation which I had discovered; but which now lay dormant, to my great mortification and the public injury. I come into the courts claiming remuneration for my time and labor—the great expenses that I have incurred in advertising repeatedly over the United States, and in my agents travelling for many years to make the utility of the improvements known, and to instruct millwrights to make, and millers to use them. The law contemplates that I shall receive ample remuneration, and by it I was encouraged to risk the great expenses. I have repeatedly published that the price of my license for the remainder of the term should be, the full price of the labor and boarding saved by the use of my improvements in one year only, with lawful interest until paid; but to those who infringed my rights, and refused to pay when called on, I would, beginning with the year ending January 22, 1813, count the sum saved in labor and boarding during the last year (equal to the first price) as a new sum becoming due, and running on interest also; and so on, the 22d day of January in each and every year thereafter a new sum saved in labor and boarding becomes due, and runs on interest until license be purchased, demanding the interest only on all these sums, leaving the principal in the hands of the users; which is the least I can receive of them to meet the expenses which they have compelled me to incur. The above are now the only terms on which my agents are instructed to grant licenses, and they are instructed to institute suits against all infringers without giving them another call.

Those who wish to purchase licenses may apply to John Love, esq. Buckland, Prince William county, or to capt. John Moody, Richmond, Va.

OLIVER EVANS.

NOTE.—Persons using Mr. Evans' improvements, or parts of them, unpaid for, will be sued if they do not discharge the claim on application. Mr. William H. Alexander has, under my authority from Mr. Evans, been empowered to receive payments and deliver licenses to use his improvements. Payments, therefore, made to him, John Moody, or myself, will alone be valid, and save the expense of suit and treble damages to the defendants. JOHN LOVE.

Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale, about 2000 acres of land in Fairfax county, not more than from seven to nine miles from Alexandria. The property is well watered, has a sufficiency of wood, and (judging from the condition of small and well cultivated farms that adjoin it,) it is highly susceptible of improvement.—It is at present divided into tenements, of from one to two hundred acres, each provided with a dwelling house, out houses, a garden and orchard; and might, of course, be laid off into four or five very compact farms. The principal object of the subscriber, being the introduction of a good system of husbandry into his neighbourhood, he will sell on very moderate terms, give a long credit on the whole amount of the purchase money, and require no other interest, than what the present rent of the land pays; being about 3 per cent. on its estimated value.

Sully for Sale.

THIS Estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those now untilled are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed: the out-houses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

Valuable Land for Sale.

THE subscriber wishes to sell two valuable Tracts of Land—one situated in the upper part of Fairfax county, adjoining the lands of Samuel G. Griffith, and bounded north by the Potomac river, containing 700 acres, about one half in wood; of the cleared land a considerable proportion is first river bottom, equal in fertility to any in Virginia: the upland is well situated for farming and of a good quality. There is also a mill seat on the Tract of considerable value. This farm is worth the attention of any person wishing to engage in the farming business, as it certainly is not exceeded by any in the county (perhaps state) as a farm of profit, and may be had on reasonable terms. Mr. John Dicksler, who resides near the land, will shew it, and Mr. Wm. M'Carty of Loudoun county, or Mr. John W. Bronaugh of Georgetown, D. C. will make known the terms. If this Tract is not disposed of before the 2nd of MARCH, it will then be exposed to PUBLIC SALE, at Wiley's Tavern, on the road leading from Alexandria to Leesburg.

The other Tract contains 1000 acres, and is the upper and most valuable part of the Tract I live on. It is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and bounded N. by Accotink creek. This Tract will be divided to suit purchasers, if found necessary. Persons wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber living at Cedar Grove, who will shew the land and make known the terms.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE's MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face blotted and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums,

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS, is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in
Consumptions	the stomach and
Lowness of spirits	back
Loss of appetite	Indigestion
Impurity of blood	Melancholy
Hysteric'l affection	Gont in the stomach
Inward weaknesses	Pains in the limbs
and debility	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
